[The constraint applied here appears clearly enough. Many of the words were found in the Urban Dictionary and at www.sex-lexis.com, and some may require definition. Cooch-cotton is pubic hair. Roploplos, French in origin, refers to large breasts. Moss-rose is a term inclusive of vagina and pubes. Joov = juvenile. WOOP = well-off older person. The yoyo prefix (“yoyogob”) refers to the rhythmic oscillations of sex in general, oral sex in particular. Snowstorms are copious ejaculations outside the body. Goobloob denotes female masturbation. Voops are, again, breasts, and as pooz means vagina, pooz-smooch indicates cunnilingus. Blowout, whoof, and mojo refer respectively to cocaine, cannabis, and heroin. All the placenames came from the Gazetteer of the Times Atlas. A plooch is a woman eyed with a view to engaging her in sex. Smosobs are, of course, “bosoms” spelt backwards. A hostroll is the area where a streetwalker solicits custom, and a globoho is a prostitute with a global practice. Crook, chook, and throbknob all denote the penis. To splooch is to ejaculate. Popshot means roughly the same as snowstorm. Booboos are testicles.]
